This was a non-traditional meeting of the Planning Commission conducted in the form of a walking tour to look at several development projects that have been completed in the village area in the last 10 years. The meeting began with dinner at the Bristol Bakery & Café at 6:30 p.m. The walking tour commenced at approximately 7 p.m. The tour included the Farmall Drive neighborhood (Creekside development), Route 116 and up Mechanicsville Road (Cicero Goddard Peck house redevelopment, Morgante accessory apartment, Hinesburg Village Center plaza redevelopment), Thistle Hill Drive and Mulberry Lane (Thistle Hill development), Commerce Street (Animal Hospital development, National Bank of Middlebury development).

The tour/meeting concluded at approximately 9 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Alex Weinhausen
