

Contract for Services

The Town of Hinesburg, in partnership with the Hinesburg Community Resource Center hereby enters into this contract with the Chittenden South Supervisory Union and Connecting Youth, of Shelburne, Vermont, hereinafter referred to as CSSU/CY, pursuant to the following terms and conditions:

- A. The Town of Hinesburg, in partnership with the Hinesburg Community Resource Center agrees to support access to healthy food within the community by completing the tasks listed in this document. The Hinesburg Community Resource Center will work with community leaders to identify municipal level strategies to increase access to healthy by completing the following:
  - a. Meet with town leaders to share the summary of work to date and inform them of ongoing activities. To be evaluated by meeting minute and communications.
  - b. Work with local food shelf and other community organizations to assess organizational policies related to supporting and promoting access to healthy foods in the populations they serve. To be evaluated by meeting minutes and communications.
  - c. Meet with town manager/town planner to share successes of other communities related to supporting access to healthy foods in town policies. To be evaluated by meeting minutes and communications.

- B. In addition, the Town of Hinesburg through the work of the Hinesburg Community Resource Center agrees to conduct local communications activities to promote the benefit of access to healthy food by completing the following:
  - a. Hold a forum of community service and resource providers to discuss ways to coordinate and educated about services for low SES populations and for supporting access to healthy foods. Evaluated by forum meeting notes.
  - b. Create and distribute marketing materials about services and resources for accessing healthy foods. To be evaluated by the number of materials distributed.
  - c. Support and promote access to healthy foods with series of healthy eating/cooking tips highlighting how to access healthy foods published in local media. To be evaluated by the number of articles printed.

- C. The Town of Hinesburg agrees to accept $10,000 on behalf of the Hinesburg Community Resource Center for the work and costs associated with this contract.

---

Connecting Youth in Chittenden South

5420 Shelburne Road, Suite 300 Shelburne, VT 05482 (802)383-1234 www.seewhy.info

Promoting a culture that develops in our youth the power and conviction to make healthy choices

