Housing Communities

Accessibility, security, comfort and affordability are key features of Cathedral Square communities. We believe animal companionship adds to the quality of life and we allow up to two pets*. Our caring and professional on-site staff provides residents with a range of support services, including the SASH (Support And Services at Home) initiative.

Independent Housing

- Spacious one and two bedroom apartments in attractive settings
- Accessibility features throughout
- Community spaces for activities inspired by residents and supported by staff
- Heat, electricity, maintenance and trash removal included in rent
- Underground/covered parking available at Grand Way Commons, McAuley Square, Thayer House, Town Meadow and Wright House

Shared Housing

- Efficiency apartments each with a private bath in a home-like setting
- Residents may purchase meals and/or housekeeping
- Ideal for those seeking a family-like atmosphere

Assisted Living

- Private apartments each with an accessible bath and kitchenette
- Personal care services available around-the-clock in a licensed setting
- Medication management overseen by a registered nurse
- All meals included
- Activities and some transportation provided

Eligibility

All Cathedral Square communities have eligibility requirements. Some are available to age 55 and older, some age 62 and older OR persons with a disability, some are for families who are furthering their education and others serve individuals with special needs.

Many of our communities offer project-based rental assistance, which calculates rental price based on income. Tax credit apartments, priced lower than market rate, are also available and Section 8 vouchers are accepted and welcomed.

 Only one dog per apartment*

SASH a caring partnership
SUPPORT AND SERVICES at HOME

SASH (Support And Services at Home) is available to all residents without charge. SASH offers wellness nursing and friendly staff that support resident-directed programs and provides one-on-one support when needed.

Healthy Homes

Caring Communities

Cathedral Square's housing is designed to offer residents attractive apartments in vibrant communities. Each location and every community is unique, but the comfort and safety of residents is always our top priority. Most sites offer convenient access to shopping and services, and some also offer amenities such as transportation and underground parking. Landscaping, views and gardens make Cathedral Square communities appealing as well as practical places to call home.
